Spirit '88 is dedicated to Principal Dean Houghton in recognition of bit dedication and devotion to the students of Mill River.

In the dozen years since Mill River's inception Mr. Houghton has served as the school's chief administrator, founding policies that have always tempered innovation with tradition, authority with kinsmanship.

In particular, the staff of Spirit '88 would like to thank Mr. Houghton for his help in finding us two faculty advisors for our book and all his efforts on our behalf in dealing with all the other little problems so frequently encountered in preparing a project such as this.

IN RECOGNITION OF SERVICE

The Senior Class express their thanks to Miss Carpetter for the guidance, advice and understanding she has given ut, both as an instructor and as cheerleading couch, throughout our years here at Mill River. She has never failed to give us her time or attention whenever we've needed it. Her continued dedication to our class and to all the students at Mill River is graphly appreciated. This is our small way of suping, "Thank you, Miss Carpetters."

The Senior Class would also like to express their gratitude to Mr. Seward. Though this year marks his last here with us, his enthusiasm and dedication have served as an example that we will always carry with us. To Mr. Seward, we say, "Thanks and Best of Luck, from all your students here at Mill River."

Graduation has been defined as the end of the beginning or the intermission between school and real life. You have spent the past revelve years attending school and now you must make real choices regarding your future.

On behalf of the faculty and the administration, I want to wish each and everyone of you the best of luck with your future. At Mill River we have strived to give you the tools to be successful. I'm sure if you could look back at your years here it would difficult to remember a day that someone didn't ery to help you become better prepared for life. Maybe it was a patt on the back or maybe a reprimand but the intent was to help you become a better person. I hope we have been successful. Our best wishes to each and everyone of you.

This is SPIRIT '88, Mill River a 13th yearbook, For the first time, the book features that color in the senior section as well as a full double page in full color. The scaff was made up of five or six regular members and supported by the indispensable aid of many others. We would espetially like to flank Allison Jinnetti, Wayn Holder, Mr. Lowell Wakker, Mrs. Pat Cattitra, Mrs. Nariene Parker, Mrs. Elaihe Lord, Need Chaderski, Aleia Moulond Jan Sharrow, Cheryi Wentr, and Andrea Frey for their help. Also, thanks anyway to all the would be staffers who just never get around to Q that advisoo, Mrs. Bruce-Francis and Mrs. Georgia Mouser and more of the aroung drudgery and organization than they dught to have had to do. Their devotion and encouragement is largely responsible for the existence of this volume.

THE WRITING AND THE WALL This year's theme for SPIRIT '88 is The Writing on the Wall. Were this almost my suber school, such a theme would be infonceivable, except perhaps as a bitter joke. But at Mill River we are blessedly free of the sort of grafific that trans the walls of so many other schools. Company we don's wait to be precived as engographing or good the sort of grafific that trans the walls of so many other schools. Company we don's wait to be precived as engographing or good to be a sort of the sort of grafific that trans the walls of so many other schools. Company we don's wait to be precived as engographing the defacement of a school or, for that matter, any other property. Instead, we felt that this theme offered us the upportunity to put a fresh spin on a couple of old cliches. As metaphor, The Wall "is ancient in as symbolism for a force or an institution that confines or divides. With SPIRIT, we've attempted to reverse that sliche by offering severs such in the school the opportunity to make a complianten, whether it be as a full-fledged member of the ear-book staffer by simply submitting a goodle, a carrion, a pet saying or the ride of a fixorie song, in doing this we hope that we have made SPIRIT [88 something of symbolic [Wall] itself, one that stands as a meeting placed a place to exchange ideas and a place to leave something of ourselves behind to be remembered in the years aligned.
